

Wise Words From Seniors to the Freshmen

“Why is it important for freshmen to be involved in school activities?”

“It looks good on college applications and also it is good to be involved within your school community.” Dakota Woodward (‘17)

“When should freshmen start looking into colleges?”

“The summer of freshmen year.” Twillie Currv (‘17)

“What teacher has been the biggest inspiration for you? Why?”

“Mrs. Barnes inspires me to be a better person because she always has a positive and bright attitude.” Jordyn Williams (‘17)

“Mrs. Stanley, she’s been a huge motivator in my life to pursue my dreams and aspirations. [She] continues to tell me never to give up.” Ariel Romano (‘17)

“How should freshmen handle the homework they get?”

“They should do the homework because it can make up for another bad grade you get.” Sydney Neary (‘17)

“Do it ASAP and learn from it so you don’t get left behind.” Peyton Burrow (‘17)

The Freshman Class of 2020

by Halie Fairfield
Staff Reporter

See how the freshmen are adjusting to high school and the advice the seniors have for them.

“How many times have you been lost, or needed to ask for help to find a class?”

“Not very much, only had to ask for help once or twice the first week.”
Matthew Butchers ('20)

“How hard was it for you to adjust?”

“For me it was half hard and half easy. Making friends and finding classes was easy, but doing [the] classes are hard.”
Elana Terembes ('20)

“What teacher has made the biggest impact on you so far?”

“Mr. Szacklyhidi, I’ve known him for a long time and go to him when I need help.”
Annalise Henzler ('20)

“What is your sleep schedule currently?”

“It’s great. I only go to bed at 1 a.m.”
Jesse Roberts ('20)

“How did you feel when your freshman year started?”

“Scared but excited for new experiences and friends”
Riley Tench ('20)

“How are high school football games different from middle school games?”

“They have more of [an] audience, [and] the games mean a lot.”
Zekhi Ball ('20)