

WHAT YOU

by Maeve Reilly
Editor-In-Chief

CHS students and faculty wasted no time in making sure the 2016-2017 year went off without a hitch. Kicking off the year students engaged in fun activities, taking place both in and out of school.

Photo Courtesy German Club
Courtland High School German Students Parade down 5th Avenue in Central Park, NYC.

September 17th

Members of the German Club and National German Honor Society traveled to NYC to participate in the 59th Annual German-American Steuben Parade. The group marched down 5th Avenue alongside native Germans in the parade's Bavarian Division.

September 20th

Members of the CHS Renaissance Club traveled to Glen Allen to participate in the Josten's Renaissance Virginia Conference, where they joined other high schools from the region to learn about the many ways to improve the environment of our school. "It was a great experience to be able to connect with the different high schools around Virginia and learn about new ways to improve our school!" said Christian White ('17). When asked what his favorite take away from the trip was Owen Reilly ('20) said he liked the quote "help happens when no one is looking."

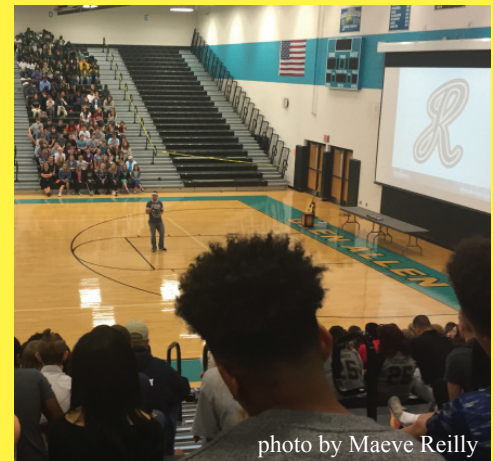

photo by Maeve Reilly

Students listen to speakers at the Jostens Convention.

photo by Maeve Reilly

Students dress in gold in honor of Childhood Cancer Awareness Month.

September 30th

The CHS Connect 4 Cancer Club sponsored a school wide Gold Out in honor of Pediatric Cancer Awareness Month.

HAVE MISSED

October 6-7

Spotsylvania County Foreign Language Liaison and CHS German Teacher, Bettina Hoeninger was awarded the Ron-Horwege-Prize for Promoting the German Language at the Foreign Language Association of Virginia convention in Williamsburg, Va.

photo courtesy of CHS

Bettina Hoeninger receiving her award.

photo courtesy of Chloe Conway

Chloe Conway ('17) holding her dissected cow eye.

October 10

Students of Shandelle Williford's Human Anatomy class worked to further their understanding of the anatomy of the eye, with a cow eye dissection. "It was a lot simpler than I expected it to be," said Delaney Sutherland ('17). When asked what she thought of the experience Chloe Conway ('17) said, "It was so cool seeing what is actually in an eyeball. It all looked so much different than what I thought."

October 18-20

Awards assemblies for seniors, juniors, and sophomores were held during Cougar AM. Students were recognized for earning academic letters, perfect SOL scores, and AP Scholar awards.

photo by Maeve Reilly

Students receive their awards during the ceremony.