Rallying up Viscous Cats

 $The \ CHS \ cougars \ get \ pepped \ up \ for \ the \ big \ Homecoming \ events.$ by Telicia Manigo

Staff reporter

Are you ready to eat raw meat? Because the Cougars were, last Friday as they prepared for the Home-coming football game and dance CHS had their annual pep rally in the gym set up by Amy Thorne and

The Jounior class during the pep

Bobbie Almassy! Several activities performed are being laughed upon by fellow students, and repeatedly made an apperance throughout school. The roars of the band instruments and chants of the cheerleaders filled the walls along with the excitement of what was going to happen next at the rally.

When the appearance of the pep rally was mentioned we got multiple responses from Amy Thorne and Bobbie Almassy, as well a CHS cheerleader Nia Wesley-Jones ('19). Jones ('19) reposed saying "It could better." She was performing with the other CHS cheerleaders. Although Almassy ings about it saying, "It went pretty well." Then cluded with her declaration saying" the pep rally went everything done in the time allotted." Together they several games and plans on how they wanted the routines along has other feelThorne congreat. We got both created event to be.

A game involving toliet paper wowed the crowed.

And most

why they did not have more activities to cause they found it not as exciting. Almassy a flash mob would have been pretty cool. to add dances and flash mobs. Thorne said eral groups to perform but there just wasn't can add time next year or have another

sponsored cheer, step

The banners where brought out at the beginning.team, dance,... etc."

of the students wondered make it more exciting bethought that maybe having Jones ('19) as well wanted "We were asked by sevenough time. Maybe we pep rally with just school performing groups, like

The banners getting lined up.